

Giving and Receiving by Faith, Dorrance Publishing

See 'Giving And Receiving' instances in the King James Version (KJV).
Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: Romans 1:27 | View whole chapter | See verse in context. And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. 2 Kings 5:20 | View whole chapter | See verse in context.
Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Jude 1:7 | View whole chapter | See verse in context. Giving generously of one's means and receiving gratefully gifts others have to give. Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven." Matthew 6:1.
Perhaps for devotions, students could write notes of encouragement to others (in the class or elsewhere in the school) "giving" praise for gifts that are recognized by others. Could I, as a teacher, model better receiving help? Perhaps it might be fitting in my class or in a unit to sponsor a fundraising drive for a content-specific cause. Additional Resources.
