top 100 military commanders (self.history). submitted 5 years ago * by aisin-gioro. I am not really sure how to compare land and naval commanders, so my top 100 will only consist of land commanders. as a postscript there will be a few outstanding naval commanders listed as well. Genghis Khan. Alexander the Great. Timur. Napoleon Bonaparte. I realize that my points overlap a great deal with your own listed criteria but by these standards, you could exclude some commanders on the list like Rommel, Lee, and Takeda Shingen (what did he possess that, say, Uesugi Kenshin, Mori Motonari or any other famous daimyo of the age didn't?) Heck, if I can get downright sacrilegious why put El Cid on that list? A list of great military leaders throughout history. From Alexander the Great to Akbar, Napoleon and leaders of the Twentieth Century, Eisenhower, Patton. He was a commander during the invasion of France (1940) and achieved striking victories in North Africa war. Chairman Mao (1893 - 1976) Led the Chinese Communist party to victory during the long march and fight against the nationalists. Barnes Wallis (1887 - 1979) Best known for developing the bouncing bomb used in the Dambusters raid. Douglas Bader (1910 - 1982) Bader lost both legs in a flying accident in the 1930s.
