I am supposed to represent Generosity, yet Rarity just sat there, the guilt eating away at her like a river buffeting a stone. Her thoughts eventually turned to more recent events, to the one that was the catalyst of her present state of affairs. _ The one that stuck with her the most was a unicorn by the name of Shimmering Sight. Rarity just happened to be there when Shimmering Sight walked through the door of the library. He promptly forgot all about the book and proceeded to stay in Ponyville in an attempt to get to know Rarity, and in the hope of making her his girlfriend. Things started off as well as could be expected between the two. Shimmy, as Rarity called him, was, for a time, the perfect gentlestallion. Reflections of the Heart is the first book in Carin Camen's The Sunrise and Sunset of Love Series. Reflections of the Heart is a collection of poems meaningful arranged to create a story about one's heart's painful journey towards self-love. In the first part of the collection, the main character enters into an intense and passionate relationship (twin flame) that radiates the heart.
