Don't Feed the Bears: Delightful Stories from the Zoo. Inside, one of the Cuddle Bear attendants, named Kira, gives Sarah a personalized hat and offers her some Honey Crackers, honey graham crackers that "everyone in Cuddle Bear Land eats". When Sarah eats a few of them, she notices something startling. Her hands have brown fur growing on them, and she has a bear nose. That's when she realizes that the attendants don't just dress up as Cuddle Bears, they "are" Cuddle Bears. When Sarah flees from the cave, she manages to find the Rest Center, and is relieved to find that she is back to normal.
