Italian paintings of the 15th and early 16th centuries introduce us to the epoch of evolvment and blossom of the Renaissance. The ideological foundation of the Renaissance culture was Humanism with its revelation of the antique heritage and deep assimilation with it. The art of those times approved the idea of human's high destination. The artists depicted the outworld relying upon scientific achievements. They also developed the basics of linear perspective, studied human anatomy and light effects. The leading cultural center in the Early Renaissance of the 15th century was Florence. Fr Sacred Treasures (çŸžâ™™, Jingi ) are artifacts of varying origin that allow the player to perform magic commands in Warriors Orochi 4 . Replacing the Type Action mechanic from previous titles, these commands are divided into three power tiers, and are known as God Spells (çŸžè¡“, Shinjutsu ). Normal Magic - Basic magical attack. Hold R1 and press to activate. Consumes a small portion of the player's magic gauge. The most standard animation for this often involves the user floating in midair for the duration Most of Italyâ€™s splendid old libraries got their starts as the private collections of a humanist noble or cardinal. The Marciana is typical, with its nucleus of 750 Greek and Latin manuscripts donated to the Venetian Republic in 1468 by the Greek cardinal Basilios Bessarion. With rare exceptions, these Renaissance libraries were originally restricted to elite circles of local aristocrats and scholars. Since Italy was so fragmented politically for much of its history, there was no Italian equivalent of a comprehensive state library on the order of the Library of Congress or the BibliothÃ¨que Nat...Â  An early edition of Danteâ€™s â€œDivine Comedy,â€ in the Angelica library.Credit...Susan Wright for The New York Times. Andreas Pittas Andreas Pittasâ€™s collection of early Italian paintings is something special. Formed over the past sixteen yearsâ€” the first acquisition was the Giovanni Bonsi (cat. no. 2) purchased in April 1994â€”, it reflects the taste of a per- son fascinated with the influence of Byzantine art on Italian painting. Bought not by an institution or a com- mittee, the individual pictures in the collection were acquired by and large at the big auction houses in Lon- don and New York.Â  The largest number of paintings in the collection dates from the 14th century. Most of them are Sienese or Florentine like the marvellous tabernacle by the Master of San Lucchese (cat. no. 30), but there are also some interesting non-Tuscan works like the Madonna by the Master of Fossa (cat. no. 26).
