The Abraham Lincoln books collected here include a ten-volume work by Lincoln's personal secretary and assistant, who had unparalleled access to Lincoln throughout the war, as well as to contemporary archival material. One of our most recommended Lincoln books is Team of Rivals by Doris Kearns Goodwin. This charts the history of Lincoln's presidency. As the title suggests, his cabinet included three men who had run against him in the 1860 presidential election. Lincoln was originally seen as an unlikely candidate for the office. Indeed, as Alastair Campbell notes in his interview, "I
