

Thomas Buchanan Nomination to the FPC.: Hearings on ... | United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce

Van Rhee de produced this book to prove that the Malabar hinterland was of greater commercial value than the island of Sri Lanka and therefore should be the Dutch capital of India. This argument was bitterly opposed by the future Dutch Governor of Ceylon: See J. Heniger in ibid., pp. 35-69. Henry Thomas Colebrooke was one of the leading figures and became a good friend to Buchanan. Buchanan, to Brown, Thomas, Secretary to the Bengal Government, Calcutta, 13 September 1807 Google Scholar [IOR, Board's Collections, 1808-09, vol. 260 (5681-5818), no. 5707]. As the hearings drew to a close, the Senator told his weary colleagues that both Judge Thomas and Professor Hill had declined the opportunity to testify again later today. Ms. Wright, who is now an assistant metropolitan editor at The Charlotte Observer, formerly served as director of public affairs for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and Rose Jordain, who was to have supported Ms. Wright's testimony, had been scheduled to testify. At one point, Ms. Wright told the committee aides: "Clarence Thomas did consistently pressure me to date him, and at one point, Clarence Thomas made comments about my anatomy. Clarence Thomas made comments about women's anatomy quite often." Judge Thomas has denied Ms. Wright's allegations. Numerous Confrontations.
