

Report of the Task Force on Library and Information Services to Cultural Minorities, Volume 61, 1983 United States. Task Force on Library and Information Services to Cultural Minorities, United States. National Commission on Libraries and Information Science National Commission on Libraries and Information Science, 1983

Task Force on Library-and Information Services to Cultural Minorities. Report. National Commission on Libraries and Information Science, Washington, D. C. Report of the task force on library and information services. To cultural minorities. Washington, D.C., NCLIS, 1983. 4. Library of Congress Cataloging in Publication Data. United States. Task Force on Library and Information Services to Cultural Minorities. Report of _he Task Force on Library and Information. Services to Cultural Minorities. Includes bibliographical references. 1. Libraries and minorities--United States. -2. Minorities--Information services United States. 3. Minorities in library sciences--United States. After reading this chapter, students should be able to articulate: The importance of defining a profession's values. The difference between professional, general, personal, and rival values. Ranganathan's Five Laws of Library Science. ALA's Library Bill of Rights. ALA's Code of Ethics. A point of conflict between two different sets of value. Their personal values. How their personal and professional values will inform their LIS practice. Would you like to see only ebooks? Task Force on Library and Information Services to Cultural Minorities. by United States. Task Force on Library and Information Services to Cultural Minorities. First published in 1981. 1 edition. Not in Library. Subjects. Congresses, Libraries and minorities. Places. United States. Lists. Add to List. Links (outside Open Library). No links yet. The Task Force has focused on how digitalization can support financing that meets the priorities of people it is intended to serve. The Sustainable Development Goals. (SDGs) are a global, shared agenda for achieving peace and inclusive, sustainable prosperity by 2030. 2008, financial services are less trusted to do what is right™ than any other part of the business community,¹⁴ although most people trust banks to safeguard their money and their data.¹⁵ Most citizens distrust how governments use their money. Over half (57 percent) of the respondents of a multi-country survey say.