Setting the Record Straight promptly became not just this book's title but our focus. While Eddie Kramer played a crucial role in the creation of Jimi Hendrix's personally authorized recorded legacy"from the breathtak ing Are You Experienced? to The Cry of Love and the construction of Electric Lady Studios"this book could not have been crafted from his personal experiences alone. Buy usedÂ Unlike most of the books on Hendrix, this book wasn't meant to retell every detail of his life; the purpose, as reflected in the title, was to set the record straight concerning a lot of the typical misinformation/legends about Jimi's life. It does an admirable job of this, and fills in a lot of things that other bios completely leave out, namely the impact his business dealings had on his life and career, and a lot of technical information about the studios and recording process (this is of great interest to me as a musician and production buff).
