Z-Library (z-lib, formerly stylized as BookFinder) is a shadow library and file-sharing project for scholarly journal articles, academic and general-interest books. Z-Library says the project provides access to more than 6,150,785 books and 80,646,144 articles as of January 26, 2021. Z-Library also claims to be "The world's largest ebook library" on the project's page for eBooks as well as "The world's largest scientific articles store" in the project's equivalent page for academic articles. Books listed in this issue of Talking Book Topics were recently sent to cooperating libraries. The complete collection contains a wide range of fiction and nonfiction books, including biographies, classics, westerns, mysteries, romances, and others. Registered users can also immediately download all titles and magazines from the NLS Braille and Audio Reading Download (BARD) service at <https://nlsbard.loc.gov/>. These books are listed alphabetically within the headings Adult Fiction and Adult Nonfiction by subject category, author last name, and title. For example the title War and Peace by Leo Tolstoy would be listed in Adult Fiction under the Classics subject category and by the last name Tolstoy. In 1985, Argentine publisher Hyspamerica asked Borges to create A Personal Library "which involved curating 100 great works of literature and writing introductions for each volume. Though he only got through 74 books before he died of liver cancer in 1988, Borges's selections are fascinating and deeply idiosyncratic. He listed adventure tales by Robert Louis Stevenson and H.G. Wells alongside exotic holy books, 8th century Japanese poetry and the musing of Kierkegaard. You can see the full list below. A number of the selected works can be found in our Free eBooks and Free Audio Books collecti Britannica Learning Library 012 - Views of Africa. 2019-02-01 Family Circle.
