They have the most comprehensive information on routes, times, prices, and train conditions. If you are planning a long train journey or some epic train trip, consult this site. I buy Rough Guides because I get 50% off their books, and because I like them. The Rough Guide to Brussels was clear, concise and contained all the information we needed to visit Brussels, Bruges and Ghent as part of a long weekend in Belgium. I wish their maps were a bit bigger and had more street names on them, as we found them to be not very user-friendly, and I also wish that suggested walking routes for Brussels and Bruges could have been given (the one for Ghent was very good). Other than I buy Rough Guides because I get 50% off their books, and because I like them. The Rough Guide to Br... Travel Books > European Travel Books. Share to Facebook. Share to Pinterest.
