Creating a learning environment is one of the most challenging things the teachers face. It includes trust, professional readiness, soft skills and ability to adapt. Generations change, so do the means and measures of how to create an environment where learners will feel confident, eager to study and motivated. Things that have worked a long time ago maybe just ineffective today, so it is fair to note, that teachers always have to learn and keep up with the changes and development of both people and technologies. By classroom management, we don't mean the way students behave during the class.
