Practical Suggestions, Based on Actual Experience, for Starting a Business of Your Own and Making Money in Your Spare Time. Edited by F. C. MINAKER. For many years, the book has been out of print and difficult to find. Yet Warren Buffett, and his biographers, credits it with shaping his business acumen at an early age. You will find many people who will laugh at the idea of learning how to make money in books. They will tell you that business success depends upon inherent trading ability and action. They will cite men who never read a book in their lives and still made lots of money in business. See what's new with book lending at the Internet Archive. 1000 ideas for home design and decoration.
