Jesus healing the bleeding woman (or "woman with an issue of blood" and other variants) is one of the miracles of Jesus in the Gospels (Matthew 9:20-22, Mark 5:25-34, Luke 8:43-48). In the Gospel accounts, this miracle immediately follows the exorcism at Gerasa and is combined with the miracle of the Daughter of Jairus. The narrative interrupts the story of Jairus's daughter, a stylistic element which scholars call an intercalated or sandwich narrative. The incident occurred while Jesus was traveling. Su JiuQing is the daughter of the first wife of a government official, but her life is anything but pampered. After her death, she awakens again in the body of her younger self.
