The city of Corinth, perched like a one-eyed Titan astride the narrow isthmus connecting the Greek mainland with the Peloponnese, was one of the dominant commercial centers of the Mediterranean world as early as the eighth century b.c. No city in Greece was more favorably situated for land and sea trade. With a high, strong citadel at its back, it lay between the Saronic Gulf and the Ionian Sea, with ports at Lechaion and Cenchrea. A diolkos, or stone road for the overland transport of ships, linked the two seas. Crowning the Acrocorinth was the temple of Aphrodite, served, according to Strabo A contemplative reading from 1 Corinthians 13. King James Version (KJV). Centering Prayer 1. Choose a sacred word as the symbol of your intention to consent to God's presence and action within you. 2. Sitting comfortably and with eyes closed, settled briefly and silently introduce the sacred word as the symbol of your consent to God's presence and action within. 3. When engaged with your thoughts, return ever-so-gently to the sacred word. (Normal flow in our consciousness-distractions) Don't resist, let them go and tolerate. 4. At the end of the prayer period, remain in silence with eyes close... Well read with sufficient time for reflection. maggie. September 16, 2017. Choose books together. Track your books.
